

Kitchen Manager

Job description

Reports to: General Manager

Salary range: £34-£37k

Responsibilities

- Oversee and manage the operations of the kitchen
- Evaluate sales trends and pro-actively stay ahead of them.
- Ensure 100% customer satisfaction at all time by providing the best quality of recipes & product
- Ensure the kitchen operates at the highest standards with emphasis on speed of service
- Ensure recipe standards are maintained
- Create new recipes and manage GP cost control
- Making the rota for the kitchen team, whilst maintaining the budgeted wage cost and closing the kitchen rota on daily basis
- Creating and maintaining a positive culture for the kitchen team whereby all your team feel included and motivated
- Attract, develop and retain excellent talent
- Ensure proper training programs are available and implemented successfully.
- Ensure teams are motivated, happy, given breaks and appraisals
- Ensure the team performs under high standards at all times, including opening/closing procedures
- Be fully aware of all H&S, Risk Assessments, Incident forms and ensure these are followed strictly
- Attend BB Management meetings

Qualifications & Skills

- Working knowledge of UK employment law
- Excellent knowledge of dough making and neapolitan style pizza
- Expert knowledge and experience on high volume pizza making & service
- Good knowledge of flours and speciality products
- Strong skill in driving for results
- Strong in people management and development
- Great communication skills

- A confident, approachable and outgoing personality
- Strong leadership skills and the ability to cope under pressure
- Excellent attention to detail and a strong presence amongst staff
- The drive to meet and exceed customer expectations

Benefits

- 33 days annual leave including Christmas and your birthday!
- EAP in place that gives you 24/7 access to counselors and therapists
- Free local gym membership with machines, classes, swimming pool, sauna and steam room
- Daily staff food & drinks for free
- Genuine learning and developing opportunities
- Buzzing working environment
- Possibility to travel and work across the country
- Massive employee discounts & regular staff giveaways
- Quarterly staff parties and awards giving international travel prizes